OFFICIAL SAFETY MAGAZINE OF THE U.S. ARMY

THIS WEEK 26-30 JAN 2015

FROST BITTEN

Warm, sunny weather is what most folks think about when it comes to the southern United States. It's not just warm, but downright hot several months of the year. But the other extreme is also true. Winters can be brutal, even if we don't have a lot of snow. Believe it or not, we've seen cold injuries here at the U.S. Army Ranger School, Fort Benning, Georgia, which is well below the Mason-Dixon Line.

WATCH THE ROAD

The warnings and riding techniques discussed in motorcycle magazine articles are extremely valuable and should be remembered and practiced. While you're practicing these techniques, however, make sure that you also, literally, watch the road.

DON'T LOSE YOUR HEAD

I think everybody has at least one "there-I-was" story. In my 30 years in Army aviation, I have acquired a few. To me, these stories are life lessons. After all, if it didn't kill you, it should make you smarter. Here's one of my life's lessons.
